

ReCommissioned with Help
Matthew 28:18-20
Randy Roberts

September 29, 2024

“And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age” (Matthew 28:20).

How Is God with You?

“Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.’ So we say with confidence, ‘The Lord is my helper” (Hebrews 13:5).

Through others

“the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go” (Luke 10:1).

Through the Holy Spirit

“And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever” (John 14:16).

Through open doors

“because a great door for effective work has opened to me”
(1 Corinthians 16:9).

Through trials

“At my first defense, no one came to my support, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them. But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it” (2 Timothy 4:16-17).

When Is the End of the Age?

When the whole world hears

“And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come” (Matthew 24:14).

When our testimony is complete

“You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat” (2 Peter 3:11-12).

When Christ returns

“Just as people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him” (Hebrews 9:27-28).

Are you eagerly anticipating the return of Christ?
